The Right of Shareholders to Propose Agenda for the Annual General Meeting and Nominate Persons to be Elected as Director in Advance

Objectives

To promote the right and equitable treatment of shareholders in accordance with good corporate governance principles, SAAM Development Public Company Limited (the “Company” or “SAAM”) gives shareholders the opportunity to propose agenda and nominate persons to be elected as director for the 2024 Annual General Meeting in advance. The Company has defined the following guidelines to ensure all agenda items proposed are of benefit to the Company and persons nominated are qualified with regards to relevant laws and regulations for consideration by the Board of Directors and proposed to the Annual General Meeting later on.

Guidelines for Proposing Agenda and Nominating Persons to be Elected as Director in Advance

(1) Shareholder Qualifications

Shareholders who would like to propose agenda for the Annual General Meeting or propose persons to be elected as director must possess the following qualifications.

- Being the shareholder of the Company holding a minimum of 5% of total shares with voting rights (equivalent to 15,000,000 shares), which can either be owned by 1 shareholder or an aggregate of many shareholders

(2) Agenda Proposal

Shareholders who meet qualifications specified in (1) of this guideline can propose agenda for the Annual General Meeting by following the procedure below.

- Fill out the “2024 Annual General Meeting Agenda Proposal Form” (Attachment 1), in doing so, the shareholder who proposes the agenda certifies that all information and attached documents are accurate and complete, and permits the disclosure of the information or supporting documents
- Deliver all documents to the Company by 31 December 2023 to the below address; in case of hand delivery by shareholder or other designated person, the documents must be delivered on working days during office hours from 9.00-18.00 hrs. and in case of delivery by registered mail, the Company will only accept documents postmarked no later than 31 December 2023

Criteria in Evaluating Proposed Agenda

To ensure efficiency during the Annual General Meeting, the Board of Directors will evaluate the appropriateness of the agenda proposed by shareholders who meet qualifications specified in (1). The Company reserves the right to consider only proposal forms which have been fully filled out, contain adequate supporting documents, and delivered in the stipulated manner as set forth in this guideline. The following proposed agenda items will not be included as an Annual General Meeting agenda.

- Matters that are against laws and regulations of governing agencies or not in line with shareholders' resolution
- Matters proposed for personal benefits or special benefits for a particular group of people not beneficial to the Company
- Matters within the scope of authority of the Board of Directors unless if possible significant damage could arise and impact shareholders
- Matters which the Company has already taken action
- Matters beyond the authority of the Company

The decision of the Board of Directors is considered final. In case many shareholders propose the same or related agenda items, the Board of Directors may choose to combine them into one agenda item. Agenda proposals approved by the Board of Directors will be included as agenda in the invitation to the Annual General Meeting, and the Company will inform shareholders whose agenda proposals have not been approved after the Board of Directors' Meeting.

(3) Nomination of Persons to be Elected as Director

Shareholders who meet qualifications specified in (1) of this guideline can propose persons to be considered for election as director by following the procedure below.

- The shareholder who would like to nominate a person to be considered for election as director must fill out the "2024 Annual General Meeting Director Nomination Form" (Attachment 2), in doing so, the shareholder who nominates a person to be elected as director certifies that all information and attached documents are accurate and complete, and permits the disclosure of the information or supporting documents
- The person being nominated as a director must fill out the "Applicant's Curriculum Vitae" (Attachment 3), in doing so, the nominee consents to be nominated for directorship and certifies that all information and attached documents are accurate and complete, and permits the disclosure of the information or supporting documents
- Deliver all documents to the Company by 31 December 2023 to the below address; in case of hand delivery by shareholder or other designated person, the documents must be delivered on working days during office hours from 9.00-18.00 hrs. and in case of delivery by registered mail, the Company will only accept documents postmarked no later than 31 December 2023
